Dr. Jenkins:

[09:00:12] Good morning, Mark. I have your file here from St. Jude's Hospital. I see you were admitted briefly last Thursday.

Mark Thompson:

[09:00:30] Yes, that's right. My wife, Linda Thompson, insisted I go in. I was feeling some sharp pains in my chest while I was at my office over at Deloitte—I work in the building on 5th Street.

Dr. Jenkins:

[09:01:05] I see. I'm looking at your history. You're currently taking 20mg of Lisinopril for hypertension, which was prescribed by your previous GP, Dr. Alan Rickman, over at the clinic on 1200 West Ave. Is that correct?

Mark Thompson:

[09:01:25] Correct. I also take a multivitamin and occasionally some Ibuprofen for back pain. I had a surgery back in 2015 for a torn ACL at the North Austin Medical Center.

Dr. Jenkins:

[09:02:10] Any family history of heart disease? I see your father, James Thompson, had a bypass at age 62.

Mark Thompson:

[09:02:30] Yes, and my mother, Martha (maiden name: Stevens), has Type 2 diabetes. She lives with us now at the Oakwood address. Her SSN is actually quite similar to mine; we always joke about it.

Dr. Jenkins:

[09:03:00] We need to run a full lipid panel. I'll send the order to the Quest Diagnostics at 801 Congress Ave. They should have your email, m.thompson78@gmail.com, on file for the results.

Mark Thompson:

[09:15:00] Will this be covered by my secondary insurance? I have a policy through my veteran's benefits as well. My VA ID is 9982-11-00.

Dr. Jenkins:

[09:15:45] Our billing coordinator, Rebecca, will check that. I see your primary is BlueShield, policy holder is listed as your employer, Deloitte LLP.

Mark Thompson:

[09:17:00] Just to be sure, my phone number changed recently. It's now (512) 555-0192, not the old (512) 555-0881 number. Please update that in the EMR.

Dr. Jenkins:

[09:18:20] Updated. Now, about your lifestyle. I see you noted on the intake form that you travel for work frequently. Specifically to London and New York.

Mark Thompson:

[09:19:00] Yes, I usually fly out of Austin-Bergstrom on Mondays. It's stressful. I'm also dealing with a lot of personal stress. My daughter, Sarah, is starting college at UT Austin this fall, and tuition is... well, you know.

Dr. Jenkins:

[09:20:30] Stress is a major factor. Let's look at your EKG from the hospital. It shows a slight arrhythmia. I want you to wear a Holter monitor for 48 hours. We will ship it to your home on Oakwood Drive.

Mark Thompson:

[09:22:15] Can you send it to my office instead? I don't want my mother to worry. Send it to Mark Thompson, c/o Deloitte, 111 Congress Ave, Suite 400, Austin, TX 78701.

Dr. Jenkins:

[09:23:00] Certainly. I'll make a note. Before you leave, the nurse needs to verify your photo ID. Do you have your Texas Driver's License?

Mark Thompson:

[09:23:20] Sure, here it is. License number 08821933. It expires next year on my birthday.

Dr. Jenkins:

[09:25:00] Perfect. We'll see you in two weeks for the follow-up. Take care, Mark.
